This Is Where We Are

NaturalNews.com

If you take stock of where we have traveled as a nation these last two and a half years, one can only marvel in disgust at the divergence in our morality, standards of living, personal safety, national and economic security, and sense of well-being.

Pride in our nation is all but gone

Pride in our nation is all but gone, especially in the Blue states. We are no longer governed but ruled. Senators threaten Supreme Court Justices, and federal law enforcement agencies are rife with corruption. Democrats no longer want to compete with their opponents only destroy them. States like California are in freefall while their state assembly declares August 'Transgender History Month'.

Major cities and surrounding areas are under siege. People, for no apparent reason, are beaten senseless in the streets, and the thug is released within hours to do it again. Mobs of thieves invade stores, stealing everything not nailed down. Homes are broken into not just once, but regularly. People block windows in their homes with 2x4s. Apart from all this, we see massive inflation—not the Janet Yellen 'transitory' inflation she lied about, but serious embedded inflation that shows no sign of letup. It's already showing itself in rising gas prices and car insurance premiums.

The Left's rioting in 2020 numbers at least 25 dead, destroyed billions in private property, and the rioters were either let go or the Democrat Party paid their bail. It's a feeling that law and order have been canceled for all except the Dems political opposition.

No place in the New World Order

The Right makes legitimate claims of voter fraud in a peaceful demonstration, and the Left responds by creating a giant fly trap in Washington to capture mere protesters, calling them insurrectionists, and making examples of them for all to see. For Trump supporters, the hammer comes down hard. Anyone familiar with Germany in the 1930s should be alarmed.

Once-grand hotels are filled with migrants and, in many cases, trashed. The Democrat Party decided we needed millions and millions of migrants (6-8 million to date) to pick the crops in New York City and Chicago. Millions of foreign faces have entered our country that we cannot communicate with. The government doesn't know who they are. We certainly don't. The millions of illegals are now competing with the poor and homeless for jobs, food, healthcare, and very soon shelter.

What is happening in San Francisco and the rest of California?

San Francisco is a small fraction of what it once was. I know San Francisco. I used to live there after leaving the decrepit New York City of the 1970s. Stores are going out of business or moving to friendlier pastures. Concerns like Nordstrom, Old Navy, Amazon, T-Mobile, Walgreens, and Whole Foods have left. Two of the largest hotels have given up: the Hilton San Francisco Union Square and Parc 55, citing street conditions. One Old Navy manager said his store was being hit 12–14 times a day.

California state legislators passed laws making it illegal to interrupt their thieving. State Farm is leaving California for property and business insurance and joining Allstate. If you're trying to buy a house or business in San Francisco or anywhere in California and can't get insurance or it is not affordable, you will not get a mortgage. Stores in downtown San Francisco are just waiting for their leases to expire. The vacancy rate in San Francisco is at a record 31% and climbing. If you're a mom or pop concern, you're going to lose everything. And that is the plan. Crime is being used to cull small businesses. Most larger companies will survive. It's the small business community that liberals want gone. They have no place in the New World Order.

A ghost town in the making

The downtown area accounts for 75% of the city's tax base, half of the sales tax base, and 95% of the business tax revenue. It doesn't take any brilliance to understand that if downtown goes down, so does the money in San Francisco's coffers. It is a ghost town in the making. The police will be further defunded by necessity, turning the city into an 'Escape from San Francisco'. The solution the city is proposing is not to bring back law and order but to turn downtown buildings into public housing. Some city officials are even suggesting tearing down the skyscrapers.

The same Democrat policies are turning Beverly Hills into a ghost town. High-end retail stores are leaving for the same reasons: mass looting and the cost of doing business. For Lease signs are everywhere.

Understand that what is happening in San Francisco and Beverly Hills is happening in Baltimore, Chicago, Los Angeles, Detroit, Oakland, and every Blue state in every Blue city: an increase in crime, mass exiting, deconstruction, loss of tax revenue, defunding of police, and loss of services. Some at different rates, but it is happening. The Democrat electorate is getting what they voted for. These voters are beginning to react with alarm, but unfortunately, not fast enough. I have long since left the dilapidated state of California for a Red state where America can still be found. I departed when you could still get a U-Haul.

Programmed dismantling of America and much of the Western world

The liberal philosophy that Democrats insist is superior morality turns out to be a lie and a total failure in every respect, socially, economically, and biologically. They reject thousands of years of human social development and biology, hoping to change the natural order of things with cockamamie ideas of gender roles and fluidity, altering DNA, and creating humans in test tubes. Sooner or later, many of these perpetrators will have to answer for their crimes.

In all my research, in all my reading, and in all my observations, I have concluded that what we are seeing is a programmed dismantling of America and much of the Western world. It is being planned and carried out by atheistic globalists, where worship of creation is permitted but worship of the Creator is not. It has a stranglehold on Blue states, while Red states continue the fight.

The leaders of this worldwide movement are a collection of fascists, communists, and organized criminals

The leaders of this worldwide movement are a collection of fascists, communists, and organized criminals, from government to corporate to medical and pharmaceutical. Their only incentive is power and money.

Barack Obama, who refused to leave Washington after his second term, bought a house in DC to be close to the action of tearing America apart. He was and remains, not the solid family man he sold himself as, but largely a mystery and as we are finding out, a moral degenerate with a bad coke habit.

Bill Gates, obsessed with population control and blasted as a "vaccine criminal" by the Italian Parliament, is a leader in the World Economic Forum's plan for The Great Reset. He was also investigated in India for illegal medical trials in two Indian states. Gates was accused in 2010 by a staffer in Ghana of testing a contraceptive on unsuspecting villagers in a remote region as part of an illicit 'population experiment' (Huffpost). Gates is a perfect example of what can be accomplished by shining up one's reputation with money.

Stage must be set to enable the oligarchs to take control—nations willing to give up their sovereignty

George Soros, the atheist who worked with the Nazis as a child to relieve Jews of their property. People deny that ever happened, but Soros said he did it in a 60 Minutes interview in 1998. In any case, I will let his quotes tell his story: "The main obstacle to a stable and just world is the United States." Here's one: "It is sort of a disease when you consider yourself some kind of God, the creator of everything, but I feel comfortable about it now since I began to live it out." Another one: "The sovereignty of states must be subordinated to international law and international institutions." Or this one: "My main concern is with the world order."

Klaus Schwab: Look at him as the creepy head of Spectre...the head honcho of The World Economic Forum. A now-famous quote: "You'll own nothing and you'll be happy about it." Buzzwords like equity will take on new meaning. You get what everyone else has, no more or less. Ambition will mean nothing. He insists that private property and privacy will vanish by 2030. It will be feudal at its core. Not for him or his stakeholders, but for you and me.

What we have in the making is a planned takedown of all society to make room for their New World Order or the Great Reset they are so anxious to launch. But first, the stage must be set to enable the oligarchs to take control—nations willing to give up their sovereignty, the killing of our economy and small businesses, the elimination of the middle class, and billions of 'useless eaters' by corrupt governments aided by a pharmaceutical industry planning to place the mRNA vaccine platform in every vaccine produced. Or they will do it the old-fashioned way—war!
